

South Dakota Excellence 2018

South Dakota Hereford Association Club Calf & Bred Heifer Sale; SDSU Animal Science Arena, Brookings, SD
Saturday, November 10, 2018

1. Consignors must be members or a member of the S.D. Hereford Association. Membership must be paid and accounts current prior to participation in any SDHA event. You must either have participated at DakotaFest or pay $200 fee to consign to this sale. Out-of-state SDHA members, who have met all of the requirements, are eligible to enter cattle in SDHA sales. Cattle raised out of South Dakota and sold in the Excellence Sale are eligible for the futurity shows but not for the steer or heifer specials.
2. It is the responsibility of the consignor to prove beyond reasonable doubt that the steers are sired by a registered Hereford bull. The steers must be representative of the Hereford breed in color and markings. If any dispute should arise, final decision is left up to the sale committee.
3. There will be a $125 entry fee per heifer calf or bred heifer, and a $60 per steer entry fee. All fees are non-refundable unless an entry is screened out by the selection committee. In such case, the entry fee minus $10 selection committee expense will be returned. All animals in the barn will be offered for sale and charged a sale commission.
4. Health papers must be furnished. Calves should be weaned, tattooed, and a vaccination program implemented. (Check with your local vet.) Heifers must be Bangs vaccinated. Bred heifers must be pregnancy tested. Steers must have a silver metal clip for out of state health papers.
5. Steers must be tattooed. Tattoos of all animals will be checked prior to the sale. Any animal not tattooed prior to the sale or that come with fresh ink, will be assessed a $50 penalty. Steer certificates will be required. The breeders portion of the steer certification application must be filled out, signed, and returned to the sale committee not later than sale day. As with heifer registration papers, payment for steers will not be made until we receive this application. Steers eligible for registration are strongly encouraged to be registered but not required.
6. SEPTEMBER 1 is the deadline to let us know how many head you are going to consign. You must notify Jeanne Johnson by this deadline so that we can make arrangements to have your consignments evaluated. SEPTEMBER 5 is the deadline to submit catalog copy and pictures. Please respect this deadline. When entry information is late, it delays the printing and mailing of our catalog which affects all involved. An additional fee of $100 per animal will be assessed all late entries.
7. Complete the enclosed entry form and return with entry fees. Make checks payable to S.D.H.A. for the number of head you wish to enter. Registration papers must accompany all heifers, and certification application my accompany all steers not later than sale day. Consignor will be responsible for cost of transfer of ownership fees. Please complete the enclosed pedigree form, photocopy registration paper, or email the AHA link. Include footnotes (maximum of 40 words), whether the animal is polled or horned, and heifer EPD's.
8. There will be a futurity show for both steers and heifers at he 2019 SD State Fair. Each consignor must contribute $20 per head entered in the futurity. The buyer must match this in order to be in the futurity show.
9. All cattle must be in the barn by noon Friday, November 9, 2018.
